

International Sustainable Campus Network

Network Development Opportunities Asia

Ann Kildahl, The University of Hong Kong

ISCN/GULF Conference

June 10-12, 2009

Higher Education in Asia

- Scale, Ambitions
 - Student enrollments
 - Competition as regional “hubs” for education
 - “World Class” research universities
 - Campus development
- Network Coverage
 - Geography
 - Impact/Models

University networks with Asian membership (partial list)

- Association of Commonwealth Universities (1913)
- International Association of Universities (1950)
- OECD-IMHE
- Association of Southeast Asian Institutions of Higher Learning (1956)
- International Association of University Presidents (1964)
- Association of Universities of Asia and the Pacific (1995)
- Universitas 21 (1997)
- Association of University Presidents of China (1997)
- Association of Pacific Rim Universities (1997)
- Others . . .

Sustainability

(partial list)

- Global networks w/Sustainability Content, Asian membership:
 - Magna Charta Universitatum (1988)
 - Alliance for Global Sustainability (AGS) (1997)
 - International Association of Research Universities (2006)
 - Global University Leaders Forum (2006)
 - International Sustainable Campus Network (2007)
 - McDonnell Academy Global Energy & Environment Partnership (2007)
 - G8 University Summit/Sapporo Sustainability Declaration (2008)
 - Salzburg Sustainable Futures Academy (2010?)
- Asian sustainability networks
 - Australasian Campuses Toward Sustainability (2002)
 - UNU Regional Centres of Expertise (from 2005)
 - “IR3S” Integrated Research System for Sustainability Science (2005)
 - Korean Association of Green Campus Initiatives (2008)